DA'S INVESTIGATOR TESTIFIES AT HEARING CLAIMS PURCHASED 9 REEFERS AT 'LODGE

By Frances Kavanaugh

Purchase of nine marijuana cigarettes in Hilltop Lodge in August was described Wednesday at a board of equalization hearing in the Daly City council chambers.

The testimony was given by William McGee, a special private investigator, who said he was engaged by Keith Sorensen, San Mateo County district attorney, to check rumors that marijuana could be purchased in the lodge at 22 Hillcrest drive, owned by George Pallas and George and Ann Kirchhubel.

McGee also testified that he saw members of the band and patrons of the establishment smoking marijuana cigarettes on the dance floor and in the men's rooms, and added that girls 15 and 16 years of age sat with juvenile boys smoking narcotics.

"Weeds" were smoked while a police officer was on duty, but the officer was unable to see such acts, he told the hearing conducted by Ivores Dains, referee.

He stated that 65 to 70 per cent of the customers were persons he believed to be users of marijuana and that others were burglars, robbers, highwaymen and confidence men.

Three witnesses defended Hilltop Lodge and its owners.

Daly City Police Officer John K. Coleman said he was privately employed there Friday and Saturday nights and declared he never saw marijuana smoked or sold.

Jose Cuadra, a part-time bartender, said he is familiar with the odor of marijuana and had never smelled it while working there from July to October. He also said he checked the rest rooms and never found marijuana butts.

Clarence McGuirt, leader of the "Candy Men" Negro band, stated that none of the men in his orchestra were addicts.

Norbert Falvey, acting district liquor control administrator, prosecuting the board of administration hearing, called four Daly City police officers to the witness chair to ask them details of arrests they made in the Hilltop Lodge between March and August. The officers were John Van Otten, Sgt. August Benassini, Philip La Bruzzo and Coleman.

The hearing began in Redwood City Nov. 19, where Eddie Graham, formerly convicted on narcotics charges, testified he bought, sold and smoked marijuana in the bar and dance hall.

Morning and afternoon sessions were conducted Wednesday before about 20 interested spectators, and was adjourned at 5 p.m., to be continued further in Daly City on a date to be set by Referee Dains. Attorney John J. Fahey represented the defendants.

McGee, who said he is 29 years old, resides at 616 Oregon street,

Elementary Bonds Get 5 to 1 Approval

By a nearly five-to-one majority, voters of the Jefferson Elementary School district Tuesday approved a $1,486,000 bond issue to finance a five-year school building program.

Heaviest majority was rolled up at the S. R. Johns residence in Broadmoor, where the measure was aproved by 18 to 1, with 96 votes for, 6 against.

Westlake precinct gave the bonds a 10 to 1 approval, registering 410 for, 44 against, while Garden Village school voters approved the issue by about 9 to 1, with 239 "Yes" votes, 29 "no."

Although the bonds were approved in every one of the district's seven precincts, voters in the old-sections of Daly City gave the issue a lighter majority, as follows: Crocker school, 219 for, 73 against; Woodrow Wilson school, 299 for, 94 against; and Jefferson school, 123 for, 67 against.

Votes will be officially canvassed Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the district administration building.

Of the total bond money approved by voters, $328,000 will be sold this fiscal year in order to indebt the district to its legal capacity of five per cent. This will qualify the district for a $917,000 state loan.

In the five succeeding years bond amounts ranging from $210,000 to $270,000 will be sold.

Bulk of the bond money will go towards completion of the Benjamin Franklin school, to cost $750,000. Other priority projects are Vista Grande and Vista Del Mar.

Westlake Property Owners association annual election at Jeff Hi auditorium Monday provided more comedy and commotion than it did enlightenment.

To start the evening off the election officials found themselves without a chalk and blackboard (at a high school, of all places) to record the vote.

This omission was remedied by turning a card table upside down and writing on its backside.

Later during the electoral circus a man took the floor to cast his vote.

"You can't speak! You're not a paid-up member," officials said.

The man in question then pointed out that he was not speaking for himself, but a man he named whom he was representing by proxy.

"You're still not eligible to vote," he was told. "The man you're representing isn't a paid-up member."

To which the would-be speaker answered, "I know, but he is representing by proxy Mr. so-and-so, who is a paid-up member."

Case dismissed.

Ultimatum Given On Valley Streets

Ired by delays on street work in southern Daly City, councilmen Monday night threatened to hold up all future subdivisions and annexation proceedings of builders Thomas Callan Jr. and Ricco Lagomarsino.

After suggestion to that effect was made by City Attorney Frank Blum, Mayor Joseph Verducci said, "That's the only way to do it," and fellow councilmen agreed.

The council said Lagomarsino and Callan should get together on the joint projects and clean them up this week or they will be allowed no further business proceedings with the council.

The council's complaint was aimed at lack of cooperation between the two property owners for development of streets in the Valley area.

Callan charges that the council passed an intent to form an assessment district there four months ago but never followed it up.

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi answered that, "We gave notice of intent to establish the district because you said you would handle the proceedings."

Councilman Del Wilson added, "Do we have to have this street put in for you?"

First It's Board, Then His Own Spouse

Troubles . . . George Kirchhubel, co-owner of Daly City's Hilltop Lodge has got 'em.

The board of equalization is currently seeking revocation of his tavern's license.

As if this weren't misery enough, Kirchhubel was given the heave-ho out of his own house Saturday night, according to local police report.

Local police were summoned at 10 p.m. Saturday by Kirchhubel, 57 Hillcrest drive, who complained his wife, Anne, was threatening to throw him out of the house.

When an officer arrived at the home Kirchhubel said he would leave for the night of his own accord in order to avoid further embroilments.

PROPOSE FIVE % PAY BOOST FOR CITY NITE WORK

A five per cent pay differential for city employees working past 5 p.m. and before 8 a.m. was among recommendations submitted to city councilmen Monday night by the civil service board of review.

Councilman Edward Dennis said he would submit the pay differential proposal before the North County Council of Cities to determine if the idea could be developed uniformly in all cities.

John Degliantoni, civil service board chairman, objected, stating that "Every time the cities agree on something then the representatives go back to their own city and jump the gun on us."

The measure paying employees a premium for night work would increase salary expenditures by about $2500 per year.

Budget Matter

City Administrator Dan Andersen said that the proposal was a matter to think over in preparing budgets for the next fiscal year.

Other recommendations submitted Monday by the civil service board included a ruling that would forbid part-time employees to work for the city more than 90 days in a one-year period.

A hotly-contested measure called for by the civil service board was one which would require all employees, regular and part-time, to be residents of Daly City.

Andersen said: "As far as I

ALERT FIREMEN SAVE LIFE OF HEART VICTIM

Alert action by two members of the Daly City fire department probably saved the life of a man stricken with a heart attack Saturday afternoon.

On request of a physician, Firemen Dick May and Hank Weisner rushed an inhalator to the home of Rocco Bonomi, 74, of 16 Como.

On arrival there they found Bonomi unconscious and turning blue.

May and Weisner strapped the inhalator to Bonomi and proceeded to administer two tanks of oxygen to the dying man. After about an hour and a half, with the two

Callan Reiterates Innocence; Found Guilty Of Speeding

Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. of Colma earned press and radio coverage throughout the county last weekend after his appearance in court Friday where he reiterated charges of "unfair" practices by Millbrae police, disclosed in THE RECORD a day earlier.

Despite Callan's complaint that a Millbrae police officer "boosted" his speed by some 20 miles an hour in issuing the supervisor a ticket November 15, San Mateo Municipal Court Judge Fred Wyckoff found Callan guilty of speeding and suspended his sentence.

Callan claims he drove through Millbrae at a speed slightly below 40 miles an hour to test reports that patrolmen there were falsifying rates of speed when giving out tickets.

Officer Otto Bortfeld, on his ticket, charged Callan with travelling 55 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone.

Callan entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Wyckoff, but the judge ruled him guilty of travelling 40 miles an hour.

A REQUEST for all Daly City residents to join in support of the current "Toys for Tots" program was issued this week by Mayor Joseph Verducci (seated). H. Z. Weibel, Elementary schools superintendent (right) has enlisted support of the schools. Each student is urged to contribute a new or useable toy to the program on December 15 and 16. Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy (second from left) has asked all residents to bring repairable toys to one of the Daly City fire stations. Helping direct the program is Sgt. Robert Mahurin (left) USMC, of San Bruno.

Treat Two Women After Weekend Suicide Attempts

Two Daly City women were revived at Junipero Serra hospital over the weekend, one for an overdose of sleeping pills and another for swallowing chloroform, in what police described as apparent suicide attempts.

Barbara Brill, 77, 151 Winchester, was rushed to the hospital Sunday at 7 p.m. after swallowing 21 sleeping pills, and later released after treatment.

Police were alerted by the woman's daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wheeler, 1153 Stanyan, San Francisco. On arriving they found the

Re-appoint Rector To Parking Group

Acting on a request by Parking Authority Chairman Ray Charette that "There's too much work for the four of us to do," the city council Monday night re-appointed Walter Rector, local insurance agent, to the parking study group.

Rector was among the original members of the authority when it was formed last summer, but subsequently resigned because of business pressure.

Councilmen unanimously approved a measure which would withdraw the acceptance of Rector's resignation.

Rector has indicated that he is now in a position to serve on the authority.

VERDUCCI ASKS CITIZENS AID IN TOYS FOR TOTS

Joseph Verducci, Mayor of Daly City, called on all residents of Daly City, and surrounding area to support the county wide "toys for tots" program. Mayor Verducci signed a proclamation designating December 15 and 16 as "Toys for Tots" days and urged the city's residents to give new or good-conditioned toys to the Christmas gift program on these days. Additionally he urged the citizens who have toys in need of repair to give them to the Daly City firemen who are conducting another toy campaign.

Joining with Mayor Verducci are the Mayors of all the cities on the Peninsula extending south to San Mateo.

The elementary public schools of the Peninsula are joining with the respective mayors and the Marine

ACCIDENT-FREE 24 HOURS GOAL OF SAFE DRIVING DAY

Local drivers will be asked to put their "best foot forward" next Wednesday when Safe Driving Day is observed here for a 24-hour period.

The campaign to keep the city accident-free for a full day is part of a nation-wide project endorsed by officials ranging from the U. S. president on down to local mayors.

Circulars urging a perfect record on S-D day have already been sent to 8000 homes. While S-D day is in progress a patrol car equipped with a public address system will urge safe driving by the citizens.

According to Inspector Henry Sundermann, who heads the local campaign, traffic regulations will be rigidly enforced in order to keep the city safe for a day.

Starting time for S-D day is 12:01 a.m. December 15, and will wind up at midnight that day.

Law enforcement officials hope that the spirit of S-D day will not only prevail throughout the holiday season but for the succeeding years to come.

COUNTY GRAND JURY ORDERS SANITATION DISTRICT KEEP BOOKS

Following an audit of North San Mateo County Sanitation district books, the county grand jury Thursday ordered directors of the district to deposit all fees in the county treasury and establish a bookkeeping system to "provide a greater degree of internal control of finances."

The district, which serves Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma, has been charged with "sloppy" bookkeeping procedures but no misappropriation of funds was indicated by the jury.

Members of the Sanitation district board of directors are Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. and Councilmen Edward Dennis and Sanford Vickers. The last two assumed office in May of this year.

Arthur J. Bodien, former water department superintendent, was appointed as secretary of the district at the time Vickers and Dennis were named to the board.

Clerical Work

Bodien handled clerical work of the district up until two weeks ago, when directors hired a bookkeeper to take over his office chores.

The county grand jury listed four recommendations to improve recording of the district's financial activities.

First suggestion was that all sewer permit fees collected by the district be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the district and that in the future no district funds be kept in a separate bank account here.

No Expenses

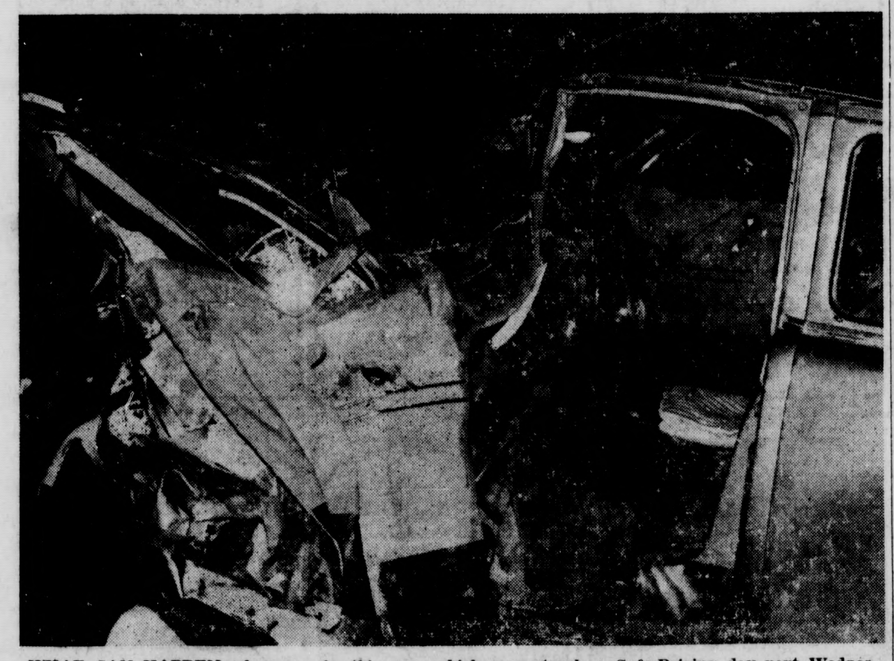
The jury also said the district should incur no expenses chargeable to the construction fund before such funds are available.

Third recommendation was that the district "keep a complete set of books of accounting, recording all financial transactions and adopt such other accounting procedures as will provide a greater degree of internal control of district finances."

City Councilmen Monday night took issue with the fourth jury suggestion, which said the district should enter into a formal written agreement with the city of Daly City for maintenance of sewer district lines.

According to City Administrator Dan Andersen, an agreement of this nature was signed in July of this year.

Prior to the time Dennis and Vickers assumed directorships of the district, former councilmen Anthony Gaggero and James Kennedy served along with Callan on the district board.



WHAT CAN HAPPEN when a driver is distracted from the wheel is shown here in photo of accident on Alemany boulevard in Daly City November 13. Two persons were critically injured in this car, which was struck head-on by an oncoming vehicle. Driver of car colliding with one shown here glanced momentarily into the back seat, swerving into lane of opposing traffic. During Safe-Driving day next Wednesday all citizens have been called upon to remain alert and sober in the campaign to keep Daly City accident-free for 24 hours.

SEVERE INJURIES IN LOCAL AUTO MISHAPS

Three local and one Bayshore auto accident resulted in injuries to 10 persons during the past week, pointing up sharply the importance of Safe-Driving day to be observed next Wednesday.

Most serious mishap occurred Saturday afternoon at Hillside boulevard and East Vista when a vehicle travelling south on Hillside collided with one making a left turn off the boulevard.

Injured were: Charles Goodnol, 22, 42 Wilson street, shock, laceration of scalp and severe concussion, who was hospitalized at Junipero Serra hospital; Cecil Valverde, 23, of 160 Flournoy street, concussion, severe scalp and facial cuts requiring 21 stitches; and Edward Christenson, 20, 186 Miriam street, wrenched left arm.

The injured were riding in Goodnol's vehicle, which made the left turn.

Driver of the other auto, Daniel Martin McDade III, 23, of San Francisco, was not hurt.

McDade was cited for speeding while McDade was charged with making an improper left hand turn.

Sunday Mishaps

Three persons received hurts in a pair of accidents here Sunday. First collision occurred at 11:10 a.m. on 87th street 75 feet west of Junipero Serra boulevard, when a car driven by Woodrow Wilson Vickers, 36, 108 Mateo avenue, coming out of a parking lot, struck an auto driven by Marie Francis Canevari, 28, of San Francisco, who was travelling east on 87th.

Mrs. Canevari suffered a lacerated tongue and facial bruises.

Neither driver was cited.

Serra Collision

Later that afternoon two persons were treated at Junipero Serra hospital following a collision on Junipero Serra boulevard near 87th street.

Police said the first vehicle, driven by Mary C. Tanehill, 32, of San Francisco, was travelling south on the boulevard when her vehicle rammed into the rear of one driven by Jack Prescott, 33, of Redwood City.

Injured were two passengers in

Expect Capacity Crowd Monday At Hearing On Doelger Annexation

A capacity turnout is expected at the Daly City council chambers Monday night at 8 p.m. when public hearing is held on the proposed annexation of 440 acres of Doelger property near Skyline boulevard.

The tract would contain a 3000-home subdivision, and would eventually swell Daly City's population by 9000 persons.

Assessed valuation of the homes would average $3000 each.

Problem before the council is whether the increase in property valuation and state subventions will offset cost to the city of providing new services for the proposed development.

Accountant Robert Hunter has prepared a detailed report on revenues and expenditures, which he will submit at Monday's hearing.

Demos Set Date For Appointment Of Assembly Candid'te

Endorsement of a Democratic candidate to run for the 25th District Assembly seat will be sought at the North County Democratic convention Saturday, January 22.

Assemblyman Daniel J. Creedon, Republican, will resign the office on January 1 to take over as lobbyist for the California Brewers Institute. The special election will be held sometime in April.

A committee appointed jointly by the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee and the San Mateo County Council of Democrats met recently and decided on the convention date. The place, somewhere in the northern part of the county, will be decided upon later.

According to the joint committee, the delegates will be selected upon as broad a base as possible. They anticipate at least one voting delegate from every precinct in the 25th district.

Andersen went on to state that many of the part-time persons employed in the recreation department were college students majoring in the recreation field. "There aren't enough trained personnel in the city limits to handle recreation jobs," Andersen said. "We can't go out and hire just anybody for these positions."

Object To Orders

Last recommendation entered by the board was one which objected to civil service employees having to take orders from non-civil service employees.

"What's up here?" Andersen countered. "I'm not a civil service employee. Do you mean to tell me I can't give these people orders?"

The administrator pointed to the fact that there are only five non-civil service city employees —himself, James Mason, recreation director; Frank Blum, city attorney; Ed Smith, city engineer; and August Conci, city gardener—all of whom hold executive capacities in city government.

KNOW WHAT'S GOING ON

The theory that a driver should glue his eyes to the road ahead is not only false but dangerous, says the California State Automobile Association. It leads to eye-strain and also may cause the driver to overlook events at the roadside which can involve him in an accident. Really good drivers always know what's going on ahead, behind and on both sides of their automobiles.

STREET FIGHTERS FINED BY BOCCI

George Burke, 45-year-old bartender, and Edwin Garrett, 40, involved in a street brawl here at San Jose avenue and Bepler streets last Thursday, received five day suspended sentences and $25 fines in Judge Thomas Bocci's municipal court Tuesday.

Both pleaded guilty to charges of disturbing the peace and being drunk in a public place.

Burke, 471 Irvington, and Garrett, 101-D Hillcrset drive, were arrested by police Thursday evening at 6:15 p.m. after a fist fight.

Smith Says Valley Drain Plans Ready

City Engineer Edwin Smith said Monday night he has finished plans for extending the storm drain system in the Valley street area, perennially flooded during winter rains.

Smith said he had already given the contractor instructions on what type catch basins to install.

The engineer also told councilmen that he has written the state to request their financial participation in the project, since much of the flood problem stems from Mission street, a state highway.

S-D DAY -- OUR BEST OPPORTUNITY

Traffic safety has always been an intangible thing to the everyday motorist.

Especially in Daly City where we are fortunate enough to have a type of law enforcement that has been able to maintain a record minus auto fatalities in the past three years.

When Daly City thinks of traffic safety, or the lack of it, we most likely call to mind some far off statistics that appear on page one of the metropolitan newspapers after a three-day weekend.

But it can, and does happen here. This past week, for instance, 10 Daly City residents were injured in accidents in the city or in neighboring areas. Fortunately, none were fatally hurt.

This week's crop of traffic victims was slightly higher than the usual weekly figures and points up sharply that only providence intervened between minor injury and possible death.

Safe-Driving day, to be held next Wednesday, provides the community its best opportunity to demonstrate traffic safety.

Striving to achieve a goal of 24 hours without an auto accident is something a citizen can set his sights to. S-D day localizes traffic safety, puts it on an individual basis rather than as a remote statistic.

Of course Safe Driving day is not an end initself, but a means to demonstrate that motorists can drive without accidents for 24 hours.

If such is the case and Daly City motorists prove themselves able to achieve a one-day safe-driving record, doesn't it follow that theoretically they could go on doing the same thing throughout the holiday season, next year and for years to come.

To us, Safe-Driving day is a marvelous idea, a desirable objective and may prove the first real step toward wholesale reduction of traffic maiming and slaughter.

GROCERY STORE PROPRIETOR HITS ATTEMPT AT SQUELCH OF OPINION ON SMITH TRAILER COURT PROPOSAL

To Whom It May Concern:

Certain elements in Daly City, in a manner wholly obnoxious and disgusting, have set themselves up as a court of last resort on the question of whether or not a trailer court should be established in this city.

I, as a businessman who is vitally interested in this city and as an American espousing public debate as a wholesome solution to community problems, appeared before the Daly City planning commission recently and expressed my opinion on the trailor court proposal.

But the purpose of this letter is not to argue either pro or con the merits of the trailer court proposal. My aim is to defend my right to public expression.

Shortly after appearing before the city planners, I received a telephone call from a self-styled "do-gooder" who informed me I didn't live in Daly City, paid no taxes, and had no right to "butt into" other people's business. I was politely told to keep my dammed nose out of "private affairs."

The fact that I operate one of the "top of the hill's" largest business ventures and pay more taxes to the city coffers than half a dozen homeowners has no bearing on my right to speak. This, at least, is the verdict of my phone caller.

This man is practicing his own jaundiced form of Democracy and by telling me to keep my damn nose out of "other people's" business, he is no doubt bursting over with self-satisfaction.

Building up bravado with wreckelessness that marks this type mentality, the phone-caller informed me that because I, and 30 other merchants, signed a petition favoring the trailer court, his group would see to it that in their petition opposing the court a clause asking boycott of our stores would be added.

Personally, I take great pride in Daly City. Obviously, much to the shrieking delight of the professional saviors of the city, I also make my living here. This, of course, marks my motives as ulterior, mercenary and aimed at the overthrow of all things sweet and good.

Nevertheless, during my many years in business here I have managed to closely ally myself with the community through service organizations, charities and other civic endeavors. I have taken personal satisfaction in so doing and think my ties in Daly City are much stronger than those of most of the citizens. As a taxpayer and heavy investor in this city and county, it is my firm belief that I am entitled to offer my suggestions at public gatherings. I am also of the belief that only a handful of people would be childish enough to ridicule, intimidate or threaten to boycott.

I really don't believe the average homeowner in Daly City would deny a neighbor his right to comment.

The good citizen is not frightened by oratory from the opposition. He relishes it and merely steps up his own efforts to disprove the other side by honest, sincere debate and by outlining the facts.

It would follow then that this element attempting to put the squelch on a few businessmen's right to talk is not representative of Daly City—but a derelict assortment of noisemakers with weird hallucinations about "other people's business.

THANKS THE RECORD FOR SENDING PAPER TO ALL SERVICEMEN

Dear Sir,

I would like to thank all the staff of THE RECORD for making it possible for me to receive the paper while I have been stationed here in Guam. It has meant a great deal to read of all my friends in and out of the service and of the happenings around Daly City, as I am a graduate of General Pershing, Crocker, Jefferson and College of San Mateo. I feel you are doing a great thing for the servicemen away from home who are receiving the paper.

Since I arrived on the "Rock," last September, 1953, I have been stationed at the Naval Station, Information & Education Office.

I will be coming home around the Christmas holidays for discharge and plan on attending San Francisco State college on the G. I. Bill.

Please discontinue sending the paper as I won't be here to receive it. Thanks again for your kindness.

Sincerely,
Frank H. Whorley, PN/3

VOLUNTEER civilian defense workers take oath of allegiance to U. S. at city hall kick-off gathering for last weekend's survey on Daly City's ability to handle evacuees from San Francisco in event of air attack or disaster. Some 60 persons volunteered to conduct the survey. A total of 500 homes were contacted to determine householders' reaction to housing and feeding evacuees from San Francisco.

QUESTION 500 IN CIVILIAN DEFENSE EVACUATION STUDY

More than 500 residents in Daly City-Broadmoor areas were questioned over the weekend in San Mateo county's test survey to determine the ability of the communities to handle evacuees from San Francisco in event of air attack or disaster.

Survey was carried out by a team of 100 volunteer civil defense workers formed Thursday night in a meeting at the Daly City council chambers.

Purpose of Survey

Volunteers were briefed by City Administrator Dan Andersen, civil defense director for north San Mateo county, and his assistant, James Mason, local recreation director. William McLarty, survey director for District 1, Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco and San Bruno, explained the purpose of the survey and questions to be asked.

McLarty said an army of 400,000 San Francisco persons would have to be moved through the San Mateo county "bottleneck" in event of disaster or attack.

"We must know the cities' capacity to take care of these people, casualties and non-casualties, along the way."

McLarty elaborated on questions to be asked over the weekend by the surveyors.

Questions were:

1. How many people live in your home?

2. How many dispersed persons, including relatives and friends, would you be willing to shelter in your home for a period of one to three days?

3. In addition to sheltering dispersed persons in your home, how many other such persons would you be willing to shelter for one to three days in your garage, guest house, house trailer or other similar structure on your property?

4. Would you be willing to provide two simple meals per day to these persons if the food was furnished and the disaster victims helped with the work?

5. How many more persons could you provide two simple meals per day on the above basis?"

Test County

San Mateo county was chosen as the test county for sampling opinion on these questions throughout the nation, McLarty pointed out.

At one point in last Thursday's meeting Mrs. Foster of Broadmoor charged that in two years "We have never had a civilian defense head or organization here."

Andersen explained that, "We're not looking for bombs now. The theory of civilian defense has changed. We're trying to develop a means of dispersal and that's the purpose of this meeting tonight."

Medical consultant for the survey here is Dr. Edward W. Saslaw of Westlake. His job will be to determine which dwelling might prove adequate for medical centers.

Mrs. Sanford Vickers served as chairman for the local survey.

Results of the CD poll were expected to be made available the end of this week.

WESTLAKE MARINE COMPLETES FOUR WEEK COMBAT COURSE

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. — Marine Pfc. David P. Waldher, son of Mrs. Dorothy Waldher of 40 Lynnewood drive finished four weeks of individual combat training Monday at the Marine Corps Base here.

The course of instruction at this huge training base included the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications, and advanced schooling on weapons.

The trainees learned that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers or with aviation units.

The training was given to Marines scheduled for duty overseas and to all graduates of recruit training before they are assigned to new duty stations.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

One of our minor ambitions, very seldom realized, is to read half the night and then sleep half the day. We've never quite figured out why it is so much nicer to read at night, but it is.

During the week following Thanksgiving we were able to do just that, as we spent it in Yosemite Valley where at this time of year there is absolutely nothing to do except sleep, eat, read and wait for the bears to come around the cabin in the wee hour of the night, hoping a friend has left a tasty tidbit for them.

We got the week's column out the Friday after Thanksgiving Day and from then on were free to read our heads off. We covered quite a bit of territory in our literary debauch, and although some of it was wasted time, two books were quite rewarding, each in its own way.

"My Brother's Keeper" by Marcia Davenport tells the story of Randall and Seymour Holt, two quite ordinary late nineteenth-century children whose lives are twisted by their grandmother and whose destiny it is to die long years later, surrounded by an unbelievable mass of worthless junk in the rat-infested ruins of her old house.

A True Incident

Every so often the death of some lonely old person creates a minor sensation when it is discovered that the apparently poverty-stricken soul had thousands in the bank. In fact the basic situation of this novel is based on a true incident and Miss Davenport provides a fascinating answer to the inevitable question: How did they reach the point where their unatural situation seemed normal and right to them?

Although it cannot be classed as a happy story, neither is it unbelievably gloomy. There is a long sunny stretch laid in Italy, a delightful glimpse of Vienna as we like to think it once was and a poignant love story.

It's a long way from the tale of two slightly eccentric New York recluses to the sands of Mars, but we made the transition effortlessly by way of Ray Bradbury's "The Martian Chronicles."

It is a series of short stories, any of which can be read individually. Read as a whole they picture man's coming to Mars; his attempts at colonization based on the extermination of the natives and their culture; his recall to Earth as the Roman Legions were once recalled to Rome; a last ditch atomic war illustrated by the death of one of Bradbury's completely automatic houses; and finally the story of the only two families to escape the annihilation of Earth and who come to Mars to begin man's story all over again.

Say No More

For the confirmed science fiction addict, I need say no more. If you have been toying with the thought of sampling this type of writing, there could be no better introduction than "The Martian Chronicles."

Now we are home and looking forward to a busy schedule. The London Festival Ballet is giving performances through this coming Sunday. There is the master pianist Arthur Rubinstein at the Opera House Monday evening, December 13, and the following weekend the San Francisco Ballet presents its traditional Christmas treat "The Nutcracker," two matinee performances only.

Chief Asks Safety For Bike Riders

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi of Daly City today issued a request to all parents of children with bicycles.

"Bicycles should be driven with the same care and caution as an automobile," Petrocchi warned.

He also pointed to the fact that all bikes should be equipped with headlights, taillights, brakes and good tires.

"Students driving to and from school, especially during winter, without proper lighting equipment are targets for death or serious injury every foot of the way," the chief continued.

Petrocchi said the police department was launching an intensive program to check all bikes in the area to determine if they have adequate equipment for safe driving.

Local Lions Seek Funds For Sonora Girl Scout Camp

Daly City-Colma Lions club have announced a campaign to provide year-round camping facilities for all Girl Scouts of the Northern San Mateo County Council.

Elio A. Fontana, chairman, will be assisted by Lion secretary Ira Neville and Charles Hildebrand.

Tickets will be sold to gain funds for the campaign.

Prizes will be given at the close of the drive.

The Scout camping facilities are located at Sonora Girl Scout camp. Growth of the project has been so rapid that more money is now required to complete the camp.

All donations from the tickets will be given to the Girl Scouts.

Safety News

"No thanks, I'm driving."

That's an expression you hear more and more often nowadays when alcoholic drinks are passed around at holiday parties.

The frequent repetition of this expression is a very encouraging sign. It shows that people are developing a better sense of values, that they realize the pleasure they get from a few drinks isn't worth the risk involved.

Of course there are still a lot of people around who insist that drinking doesn't affect their driving ability. Some even go so far as to state they can drive better after a couple of cocktails or a beer or two.

But most people take a more intelligent attitude. They know the evidence is against the fellows who claim they can drive as well after drinking. A good deal of research has been done on this subject in recent years, and it all tends to establish the fact that consumption of alcohol slows down reactions and impairs judgment. Accident records show the tragic relationship between drinking and traffic accidents. Accident Facts, the official statistical publication of the National Safety Council, states that in 24 out of 100 fatal traffic accidents that occured in 1953, a driver or a pedestrian had been drinking.

Informed people, aware of the danger involved, are unwilling to take a chance. They value their own safety and the security of their families. They day of the daredevil who climbs unsteadily behind the wheel and roars away with great bravo is gone. Even the slightly tipsy fellow is likely to meet with disapproving stares if he attempts to drive. And his friends are not likely to be grateful for his offer of a lift. "No Thanks, I'm Driving," is an expression that's gain in popularity. And the more popular it becomes, the merrier Christmas is going to be in Daly City this year.

Postmaster Tells Of New Services

An additional service to residents of Daly City has been furnished with the installation of post offfce boxes in the main office of the Daly City post office, 31 Bepler street, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy of Daly City announces.

The main office will remain open daily from 7 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. to enable boxholders to receive mail, Murphy announced. Service will also be provided on Saturdays from 7 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. and on Sundays from 8 a.m. until 10:30 p.m.

This new service will enable box patrons to receive mail much later daily and on Sundays, Murphy stated.

CHRISTMAS TREE HINTS GIVEN BY DC FIREMEN

By The Daly City Fire Department

The Fire Prevention Bureau of the Daly City fire department has eight measures that should be considered to reduce the hazard from Christmas trees as far as possible:

1. Select a fresh tree, no larger than you need.

2. Cut off at least an inch of the trunk of the tree at an angle, and keep the cut trunk in wet sand or water.

3. Mount the tree securely so that it cannot overturn easily.

4. Place the tree away from fireplaces, radiators and other heat sources, and be sure that, if it catches fire, it will not block the path of egress from the room.

5. In decorating the tree, avoid the use of flammable bunting, cotton, streamers and similar decorative material. The market affords fire retardant decorations.

6. Use only approved U. L. cords for the Christmas tree lights. Examine cords from fraying and worn connections and replace them when necessary.

It goes almost without saying that candles should never be used. Turn off the lights when retiring and when leaving the house.

7. Be sure that toys are not highly flammable. Dispose of gift wrappings and packing material safely, avoiding any accumulation which may be the cause of fire.

8. After Christmas, remove the tree as soon as possible. No matter how careful you are, the tree dies out indoors and becomes more hazardous as time elapses.

As a reminder to the organizations and churches of Daly City, the State Health and Safety Code, enacted as chapter 1549 Statutes of 1947, which became effective on July 1, 1948, states in part that all decorations, (which includes Christmas trees) must be flame-proofed), in any auditorium of public assemblage.

We feel through a little extra effort on the part of us all, lives and property may be spared from the ravage of unnecessary, preventable fires.

May we, the Daly City fire department, wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas and fire safe New Year.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

The Christmas trees are starting to appear in the windows and people are right in the midst of the hustle and bustle of Christmas shopping. While all this is going on the folks are still making news for all of us so let's get on with this week's.

First of all the AQU-CIRCUS put on by the students of Jefferson High was grand. There were solos, specialty numbers of which the LEOPARDS & TRAINER performed by DIANE GRIMES, CHARLENE VAN VLIET, JILL DOUGHERTY, and RICHARD ERICKSON was really quite fine. The trick divers going under the name of GERMAN ACROBATS in which the following boys took place—JACK GREEN, JOE MARSHALL, WALLY HALE, DON CRAIG, RAY LIPPERT, JOHN SCHWANINGER, DICK BUSCHERO, RON BIANCALANA and ANDY RUELAS—kept everyone on the edge of their seats. Not only did they perform comic dives but some of the fancy dives were done to perfection. Two other numbers, both swimming events, were really very good. These numbers featuring many swimmers in each, were the MERRY-GO-ROUND and the LOVE THEME which was the biggest number on the program. These last two numbers featured precision swimming and each boy and girl kept perfect timing with his or her partner. The finale in which both swimmers and dancers participated was really great. Congratulations are due not only to the students who participated in these events but to the teachers who trained them. Those of you who missed this event really missied something.

Well, it seems that the "flu bug" is really on the rampage again. Of course it is that time of year for him but MR. ROY COMBS of Los Banos avenue would just as soon that the bug had passed him by. This solves the question of who the tall dark and handsome man was in Roy's store for a few days. Want to know? It was BOB MILLER, Roy's son-in-law, doing a fine job of lending that well-known helping hand.

Had company last night in the form of a former neighbor. MRS. LILLIAN E. NEGHERBON now of Redwood City (and she wishes sincerely that she was back) came to spend the evening. A very nice part of the visit was the appearance of her son RICHARD E. NEGHERBON JR. of the U. S. Navy who also stopped by long enough to tell me he will be a civilian again sometime next month.

Friends and neighbors in the Vista Grande area are most happy to see MR. R. MULLIGAN with them again. He has been in the hospital where he underwent surgery for a very badly cut thumb. Fact is he almost cut the very useful item off. What makes it doubly hard is that Mr. Mulligan is a welder and most certainly needs his thumb not only right now but in the future, as this is no time to have to be out of work, according to him.

Another of the folks has been ill over the last weekend. MISS DOLLY CASTELANNO of Santa Cruz avenue got caught in the downpour of last week and it really put her to bed with a cold to top all colds. She has now returned to her class mates at Jeff accompanied by a box of Kleenex.

Last Sunday dawned rather cloudy and rainy but that didn't keep the folks away from the Bazaar sponsored by the OLPH Mother's Club. The cakes were so beautiful that your surely wished that you could win them all even though you didn't win even one, the linen booth had such an amazing display that they were sold out much to soon and the dinner was just grand. All in all it was, as usual, a very successful event. This just goes to show what can be done when people are working for "your children and mine."

More of the neighbors have moved but this time they are still neighbors. MR. and MRS. RAY LENCHIONI, formerly of Los Banos avenue for many years have moved into their new home just in time to put up the Christmas tree. BABE and RAY and their daughter are wished much happiness in their new home from all the folks. Just don't forget the neighbors in our area who will miss you.

No matter how ill one can get there just seems to be no keeping a good man down. MR. ED EMERSON, father of one of the folks, was just about as sick as one could get last week. Fact he had one and all quite scared. Just to prove that all that was the matter with him was that he "just wasn't feeling his best." He must have been right as this week he is fine and for seventy-eight years young has more pep and energy than I have.

Servicemen

To start this section off I would like to thank in behalf of all the boys in the service and particularly those overseas, those folks who have called and asked for an address or an APO number to send a card or gift to. Some of these folks don't even have any boys let alone any in the service. May their Christmas be brighter for the light they will bring into the lives of others.

A 2/c RICHARD PHELPS of the U. S. Air Forces was heard from this week. He is in Korea (remember that place) and wants to thank THE RECORD for his copy of the paper which he receives each week. It is snowing there now and very cold and with not too much to do the time hangs rather heavy. He says he looks forward to reading the paper each week and although he doesn't know many of the people they realy bring him closer to home.

Heard from my little freckle-faced "MAC" McDONNELL of the U. S. Air Forces this week. Mac is definitely one of my boys. He has now returned from overseas duty on tiny Johnstone Island, gotten married and is stationed at Great Falls, Montana. He takes this way of saying a hello and Merry Christmas to all the boys whom he knows will read the paper.

Another name we will soon see in this part of the column is CHARLES ERICKSON of the Marine Corps Reserve. He plans to go on active duty after graduation and will follow in the footsteps of many a Daly City boy who has worn the olive drab of the Marines.

One of the folks doing his part is Master Sgt. CHARLES MICHEALS of Willits street. He is at the present time very busy teaching the finer points of the service in ROTC at City College in San Francisco. He is a grand person and one most surely suited to instruct the young men in this subject.

News and Views

The BOXING SHOW sponsored by the MEN'S CLUB of O.L.P.H. Parish was as usual a bang up affair. It was just most unfortunate for some of us who would like to have gone to this event that we didn't think in time and had ordered tickets to the Jeff Aqucade which was held the same night. There is only one thing that I seem to be unable to answer when one of the neighbors calls me on the phone—WHAT IS THE PRICE OF ADMISSION? Would someone connected with this enterprise please give me a ring so I can answer some of the folks when they call? Thanks.

There is going to be a concert in town on Sunday, December 12th. It will be given by the pupils of the De LEON STUDIO OF MUSIC and sponsored by BOY SCOUT TROOP 243 of O.L.P.H. Parish. The time is 2:00 p.m. to 4 p.m. and the place is the O.L.P.H. Hall on Wellington avenue right next to the church. The incentive of this concert is to bring the parents and friends of any and all boys closer to the troop. The leaders would like to help the parents to understand the aim of this troop—TO ACCOMPLISH SCOUTING — and SCOUTCRAFT—in all it's various phases. The troop has the organizations behind it but the parental knowledge and understanding is very vague on the most part. Come to the concert, meet the scouts, their leaders and if there are any questions that you would like answered there will be someone there to help you. In taking an interest in scouting you are building for the future of your children and mine. See you Sunday at O.L.P.H. Hall.

More moving vans and they are really busy these days in our town. The DONALD HANNANS of Larchmont drive have decided to try the climate or what have you of Marin county and are leaving us. They will leave many friends behind but promise to keep in touch with all the good folks they have met since they have lived amongst us.

This is rather a belated piece of news but if any of the barbershop set have been wondering just where and what RHODA has been up to lately here is the answer. She has been hostess to her two nieces visiting her from Portland and of course has been busy showing them all the sights and best places to go. Doesn't one have fun that way?

The EAGLE'S AUXILIARY BOWLING TEAM is going "great guns" to put it in the vernacular of one of it's members. One of the reasons is AGNES MALTZ has helped to keep them on top by really being in form and consistently bowling over the 200 mark. This I understand is quite some feat. Congratulations gals, keep it up and you will win the trophy for sure.

OLPH Mothers Say Bazaar A Success

The Mothers' club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school has just concluded one of its most successful bazaars, according to Mrs. Catherine Ricci, president of the club, who was also general chairman of the affair.

More than 600 guests were served dinner by Mrs. Betty Traynor and her most efficient crew of workers. The parish hall was thronged with members, friends and children during the day and well into the evening in spite of the stormy weather. The sewing booth and cake booths were cleaned of all their wares early in the day.

Many prizes were given away, among them $100 to Mrs. Mary Facchini, porcelainized car job to Mrs. Janet Fellman, a portable radio to Mr. Pat Patterson and an automatic pop-corn popper to Mrs. Kay Balestreri.

Reports of bazaar chairmen will be given at the regular Mothers' club meeting which will be held today at school auditorium at 8:15.

The club's annual Christmas party for the members will be held today, with an exchange of gifts. The members, as has been their custom for many years, will also bring a gift of a toy or a cash donation for the St. Vincent de Paul society, who make a very merry Christmas for the needy children of the parish.

Mrs. Eda Bonini and Mrs. Beth Powers are chairmen in charge of the Christmas party, assisted by the third grade mothers and the graduate mothers.

SAN JOSE was the setting for recent nuptials uniting Arthur Leo Lauffenburger and Patricia Sarah Fawcett, Jefferson High school graduates. The couple are now making their home in Redwood City.

Jefferson Hi Grads At Home in Redwood City Following Rites

A pair of Jefferson High school graduates were united in marriage recently in ceremonies held in the living room of the bride's aunt and uncle's home in San Jose.

Rites performed by the Rev. John C. Carroll united Arthur Leo Lauffenberger and Patricia Sarah Fawcett.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Fawcett, 399 Elington avenue, San Francisco. She was graduated from Jefferson High school and later from Franklin Hospital School of Nursing. Since her marriage she has taken a position on the nursing staff of Sequoia hospital.

Marching altar-ward the bride's ensemble was made up of lace over white satin. Long sleeves tapered over wrists and the V-neck was softened with scallops of lace. The bouffant skirt of satin had an over-dress of lace scalloped in front.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Lauffenberger's high school classmate and girlhood friend of this city, Miss Ann Allen.

Lauffenburger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren Lauffenburger of San Carlos.

Upon being graduated from Jefferson High school, he attended College of San Mateo, majoring in engineering. He was in the U. S. Navy submarine detail for two years and is now with Lenkurt company, San Carlos.

Following a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and Reno, the couple settled in their home at 342-A street, Redwood City.

OFFICIALS SAY PLANS ARE FINAL FOR NEW SKYLINE

Norton Charges Two Year Delay On Job

Highway officials Monday night submitted to the council plans for making Skyline boulevard north of Alemany a four-lane highway and told councilmen the plans were "final."

John Daniels, metropolitan district right of way agent and Donald Gardner, senior right of way agent, appeared at the behest of the council after earlier charges by Realtor Murray Norton that the state had held up any definite information on the highway project for four years.

Norton proposes to develop a 60-home subdivision on a six-acre site west of Skyline and north of Ocean Shore Highway. He has claimed that lack of definite planning by the highway department had posed a "terrible hardship" on him.

Refuse Price

Norton indicated Monday that he would not accept the price offered him for certain highway easements on the fringe of his land and said, "I shall be very happy to go to court."

The state highway commission originally outlined plans for developing Skyline north of Alemany as a four-lane highway and abandoning the Ocean Shore highway at a Daly City hearing in 1952.

"Up to date I have heard of no change in these plans," Norton claimed.

"On the assumption that these highway plans may be 'final' I have drawn the following conclusion from the highway officials," Norton said: "The development north of Alemany is a proposed four-lane expressway permitting a 55-mile per hour speed and eventually to a six-lane freeway with Northgate to be closed at Skyline. A 50-foot service road will be built to take off on the west side of Skyline boulevard opposite Northgate paralleling Skyline running south on our frontage a distance of 1400 feet and running into a dead-end at the Silver Saddle.

"This would necessitate travelling 2800 additional feet for a motorist to get to the Silver Saddle from Alemany and Skyline.

Cites Traffic Hazard

"The proposed highway plan does not call for either 'stop and go' signs nor arterials for left or right turns at Northgate."

Norton said that this constituted a "life and death" hazard to motorists trying to negotiate the crossing. He said it would add a greater burden to the cost of police, fire and hospital service.

Norton also said that according to the highway officials' map, he would have to make an outlet street leading into Ocean Shore highway on the extreme west line of his property at Thornton beach at a point about 4500 feet west of the Skyline-Alemany intersection. "This would mean wasting 20,000 square feet of our commercial property within the wire fence and would call for a sharp 'U' turn off Ocean Shore highway and would necessitate an entire revision of our subdivision plans."

Tremendous Loss

According to Norton, this would constitute "a tremendous loss in revenue to us and also to Daly City in taxable commercial land on buildings."

He urged a shorter service road be built, less fencing be installed on Ocean Shore highway based on the highway commission decision to abandon that highway and called for "final decision on plans at an early date."

"As far as we're concerned," Daniels answered, "These plans submitted here are final."

Daniels urged the council not to grant any use permits for subdivision or zoning in the area. "We expect to get the project underway in June of 1955," he said.

Daniels indicated the "final" plans could be altered at this stage if enough evidence was presented to show that there could be a better method of developing the highway.

"They've reached the stage where they shouldn't be changed, however," Daniels concluded.

"I'm still confused," was Norton's last parry.

Trustees In Tour Of Local Schools

A "cook's tour" of school facilities here was taken Saturday by board of trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School district.

Following breakfast at the home of Trustee Katherine Mullen, board members Helen Cheatham, Henry Kraus, Joseph Lewkowitz and Mike Callan, Superintendent H. Z. Weibel, Architect Mario Ciampi and Business Manager Harry Aronson, made their first stop at Garden Village school where playgrounds, gardening, drainage and buildings were inspected. Next stop was Olympia school in Westlake, which is now nearly completed. The board expressed approval wtih the school building innovations which Ciampi has included in this project.

Next on the itinerary was the Westlake school, but board members reported many attractions of the Westlake PTA bazaar in progress detracted from the survey.

In order, trustees then visited the primary grade school at Hillside and Market and the Colma upper grade school. The board said progress was being made on present construction but noted a number of needs for the buildings and grounds.

Last stop was Gen. Pershing school on Hanover. Maintenance and care being given the old building was lauded.

The San Francisco Museum of Art is located in the Veterans' War Memorial building in the Civic Center.

ANNOUNCE WOMEN'S DAY SUNDAY AT VISTA GRANDE

Dr. Howard P. McConnell, minister of the Vista Grande avenue Christian church located at 101 Vista Grande avenue, announces that this coming Sunday is "Women's Day" at the church. The morning service is at 10:55 o'clock and will be conducted by the women of the congregation.

Mrs. Maxine Golden, president of the Christian Women's Fellowship, will preside, and assisting her will be Mrs. Myrle McConnell, Mrs. Dorothy Emmert, Mrs. Ruth Green, Mrs. Edna Hyers, Mrs. Patricia Payne, Mrs. Esther Rand, Mrs. Viola Iodence, Mrs. Adeline Tartar, Mrs. Vivian Merritt, Mrs. Mathilde Yarbrough, Mrs. Daisy Clardy, Mrs. Lois Murray, Mrs. Nell Hacker, Mrs. Vivian deGraaf, Mrs. Hazel King, Mrs. Millicent Simpson, and Mrs. Westelle Hassler. Mrs. Blanche Schmidt of Dos Palos, vice-president of the Northern California Christian Women's Fellowship organization, is the speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller will entertain Mrs. Schmidt in a dinner party following the morning service.

Read Luke 4:16-19.

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. (John 8:36.)

The Jewish Law said: "If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh year he shall go out free for nothing."

This was a blessed day for many. It has been said that when that morning approached, all the slaves to be free journeyed up the highest mountain and waited. When the first rays of the sun shone upon them, the slaves danced and shouted for joy.

The coming of Jesus of Nazareth into the world has brought similar joy to millions of people. In dedicating their lives to Him, they have become free. This is the good news of the gospel. Jesus Himself announced that He had come to preach deliverance to the captives.

Men imprisoned by fear have faced the future with certainty through faith in Christ. The shackles of sin have melted in the light of His purity. The tentacles of greed and the grip of evil habits can be broken by Christ. Christ comes seeking entrance to our hearts. He would bless us with the healing and redeeming freedom of God's love. Such glorious tidings are to all people.

PRAYER

O Lord, through Thy Son, free us of the shackles of sin, for we are helpless to rid ourselves of them. Through Him, make us the free persons Thou wouldst have us to be. We pray in the name of Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The servants of Christ are free men.

B. W. Middlebrooks (Texas)

DA's Investigator Testifies At Hearing Claims He Purchased 9 Reefers At Lodge

Manteca, and has been investigating marijuana sales in California 2½ years, testified he visited the Hilltop Lodge about 15 times in August.

He said he first went there August 4.

"What did you see when you entered the premises," Falvey asked. He replied: "I looked around, looking for loose individuals, one of which I found and struck up a conversation with him and the two girls he was with and made arrangements to buy some marijuana cigarettes."

Question (by Falvey): "Do you know the name of the person?"

A. "Yes. He went by the name of Geronimo."

Dains: "About how old was he?"

A. "I would say around 20 years old. Nineteen or 20."

Falvey: "Do you know him by any other name?"

A. "Yes, I do. Jimmy Acevez. I'm not sure of the spelling."

Falvey: "What time of the day or night was it?"

A. "I met him around 10 o'clock. It was after 12 and would be on the fifth of August that I made arrangements to buy marijuana cigarettes."

Q. "Did you meet him first at the Hilltop Lodge?"

A. "I did."

Q. "Did you know him before that time?"

A. "No. I hadn't."

Q. "How was this purchase of marijuana made?"

"Need Some Bread"

A. "I said do you know anyone who is holding. He said he might. He said I will need some bread. I said how much. He said four. I gave him $4. He went across the room and talked to a man in a flannel coat. He gave me $2 back and two cigarettes."

Q. "Where were you seated at that time?"

A. "At the far right hand corner in a booth."

Q. "When he left that booth, was he still within your view?"

A. "He walked directly across from me."

Q. "And returned to you without leaving your sight?"

Q. "That is right."

Q. "On the premises all the time?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "When he returned to the booth, what did he do?"

A. "He accused me of making time with his girl."

Q. "You were satisfied that the cigarettes delivered to you at that time by James Acevaz were marijuana cigarettes?"

A. "I wasn't at that time. I excused myself after an argument, went to the men's rest room and broke off one end and then I was satisfied."

Q. "Were there any other transactions involving marijuana in which you participated that night?"

Others Smoking

A. "I observed some fellows smoking but did not participate in anything myself, such as any other cigarettes."

Q. "What would you say they were smoking?"

A. "Marijuana."

Q. "Why do you say that?"

A. "They were smoking as you smoke a marijuana cigarette and I walked past them and it was marijuana smoke that I smelled."

Q. "They have a particular odor?"

A. "Marijuana has a sweet, sickening odor. It smells like leaves burning in the autumn. Once you smell it you know it again."

Q. "Where were these people smoking?"

A. "In the same corner Geronimo had gone to to purchase the two cigarettes for me."

Q. "Is that on the portion of the premises open to the public?"

A. "Yes. It is."

Q. "How would you identify the place?"

A. "It was at the far end of the building, to the left of the band stand, right near the men's bathroom door. There was more smoking going on in the bathroom."

Q. "What that on the same occasion?"

Q. "Where did that take place?"

Marks Evidence

A. "In the men's room. Immediately after I received the two cigarettes from Geronimo, I went to the men's room to mark them for evidence and take a look at them. As I left he hollered, 'I will be right in and light up too.' I was surprised he hollered so loud but he did. I opened one, broke it open and lit it up. Geronimo came in and knocked on the commode door. I unlocked it and let him in. He said, 'You got a match.' I said I am not going to light up when I don't know anyone. He said everyone smokes in here. I tossed him a match and he said thank you. Jimmy wanted a cigarette and I said here's two. He said how can you smoke it when one end isn't broken. I said now I know why it drags so long. I observed the other men and they had four cigarettes going between them. I did recognize members of the band in the group. The odor and the actions of the men who smoked led me to believe it was marijuana."

Q. "Will you describe the manner of smoking marijuana?"

McGee Demonstrates

A. "They smoke marijuana cigarettes so as to get the same amount of outside air into their mouths as they do cigarette smoke. (McGeen demonstrated by twisting his mouth and inhaling). The other way is to cup your hands and draw in. I saw both methods used that night."

Q. "When did you return to the lodge?"

A. "I returned the next night. The fifth."

Q. "About what time was that?"

A. "I believe somewhere around 10:30."

Q. "P.M.?"

A. "Uh huh."

Q. "Who did you meet on this occasion?"

A. "I met two fellows known to me from the night before as Guido (pronounced Weed-o) and Clarance Amboroso."

Q. "Do you know Guido by any other name?"

A. "James Edward Lorenzana, I believe, is his name."

Q. "What occurred on this occasion?"

A. "I believe I made a mistake on the time. I entered around 8:30."

Q. "What occurred?"

A. "I walked in the Hilltop. There wasn't anyone there except a few customers. I went over and sat down and ordered a beer. Before we could order, the police came over and asked for draft cards. I told him I didn't have any and he said that spells out. So he escorted us over to the door and left."

Goes To Apartment

On cross examination by Attorney Fahey in the afternoon, McGee testified he did not produce a draft card because he wanted to remain with the men seated with him and accompanied them to the apartment of a sister of one of them.

McGee described his next visit on August 6, under questioning by Falvey.

Q. "Did you meet anyone on that occasion you had previously met?"

A. "Yes. Guido."

Q. "After you met Quido, what did you do?"

A. "I told him I was looking for a pickup. He said, 'That I can do. That is what I'm here for.' I gave him $10. I was standing on the right-hand side, close to the juke box. He went across the dance floor and returned with four cigarettes and $4. His running fee was $2."

Q. "Did these cigarettes they delivered to you on this occasion have the same characteristics as the marijuana delivered to you?"

A. "Yes. They did."

Q. "They were familiar to you out of your experience as marijuana cigarettes?"

A. "They were."

Q. "When Guido left you and took this $10, where did he go? Did he remain in your sight?"

Bring Up Graham

A. "He went directly across the dance hall. At that time I saw him standing near Graham."

Q. "Were you present at the first part of this hearing Nov. 17 in Redwood City?"

A. "I was."

Q. "Did you see the witness testifying at that time?"

A. "I did."

Q. "Was that the same person you saw Aug. 6?"

A. "It was."

Q. "And this was the person he approached in your sight?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "After the cigarettes were delivered to you, what occurred?"

A. "Guido tried to introduce me to two girls I met the night before. One was Barbara, 15 years old, and her friend, who was 16. I shied away from that. I told them I was going out for a cup of coffee and left and marked the cigarettes."

Q. "Did you go there every day or every night for a period of time?"

A. "Yes, I did."

McGee testified that he was in the Hilltop Lodge on Sunday, Aug. 8, but did not make a purchase.

Everyone Smoking

"Everyone I saw that I saw before was smoking and there wasn't a chance of getting by that night before everyone because they want you to sit down and smoke with them," he said.

He described a visit on Aug. 18, saying: "I couldn't find Guido, so I started asking around. I went to the corner by the men's rest room and asked a fellow if he had any. He said 'see this boy, I don't know you.' The other one said 'how many do you want?' I said one or two. He said he had three. I gave him $3 and he gave me the three cigarettes. He got the cigarettes from the first fellow I asked, the one who didn't want to sell them to me."

Falvey inquired: "Can you identify these men?" McGee answered: "No. I can't."

Falvey: "Did you arrest or cause the arrest of James Lorenzana and James Acevez?"

"The Daly City police department and I made the apprehension," he replied.

Falvey entered certified copies of records of San Mateo County Superior Court showing that Lorenzana and Acevez had pleaded guilty to charges of selling marijuana.

Coleman Couldn't See

McGee told Defense Attorney Fahey on cross examination that Officer Coleman on duty could not observe the marijuana smokers. He testified that two "reefers" were passed among five persons near the juke box while the officer was standing near the entrance and add that he went to where the officer was stationed and looked toward the juke box but could not observe the marijuana because of the dim lighting, the distance and the Crowd. He estimated Coleman was 45 feet from the juke box.

Fahey asked him: "Did you make any contact with any narcotics user or peddler in the city or town of Brisbane prior to your investigation of the Hilltop Lodge and make any arrangements with any such person to meet you in the Hilltop Lodge so as to arrange for you to make a purchase of marijuana?"

"Absolutely not," McGee responded.

Fahey asked Officer Coleman: "Did you during your tour of duty with the Hilltop Lodge on any occasion and under any circumstances see anyone smoking marijuana cigarettes?"

"No, I never did," the policeman replied.

"What nights did you work there?"

Coleman: "Friday nights from 11 o'clock to Saturday morning around 2:30, the time the money was put away. Saturday nights 11 o'clock to 2:30 Sunday morning. I started on June 18 and worked up to Sept. 11."

Fahey: "On no occasion did you see anyone buy or sell marijuana on the premises?"

Coleman: "No."

"Decent Place?"

Fahey: "So far as you know, the activities of the owners of these premises, Mr. Pallas and Mr. and Mrs. Kirchhubel, isn't it true that they made every effort reasonably possible to make to maintain an orderly, upright and decent place?"

Coleman: "I think so."

The defense witness, Jose Cuadra, 138 Wilson street, San Francisco, said he was employed as a bartender at the Hilltop Lodge from June to October. He testified he was familiar with the odor of marijuana because he had seen it smoked daily when he was at sea.

"During the time you worked at the Hilltop Lodge as a bartender, did you ever see anyone smoke marijuana in the place?" Fahey inquired of him.

"No, I didn't," he said.

Q. "Did you ascertain a smell or odor which indicated someone had smoked marijuana on the premises?"

A. "No. I never did."

Q. "Did you have occasion to visit the men's room?"

A. "Yes sir."

Q. "When you went to the lavatory on the premises, did you ascertain any odor which would indicate anyone had been smoking marijuana in the place?"

A. "No."

Honorable Discharge

Clarence McKuirt, 1812 Wood street, Oakland, testified that all the men in his band, including himself, have honorable discharges from the United States Navy.

"None ever got fouled up for smoking marijuana?" Fahey asked him.

"No sir," he said.

Falvey question the Daly City policemen concerning eight arrests made in or near the Hilltop Lodge between March and August.

Officer Coleman testified that he expelled Joseph Sussnow and Robert Benavente from the premises because of an argument July 10. He said they started fighting on the sidewalk and were arrested for disturbing the peace.

On July 18, he stated, he tried to quiet Gordon Kappas, who cussed and broke a glass. Bartender Ray Florence summoned the officer and Kappes grabbled with Coleman and officer and man fell to the floor. Pallas helped Coleman and Kappas was arrested for disturbing the peace.

Cussed Officers

On Aug. 1, he continued, Luigi Gastucci challenged patrons in the bar and cussed officers who spoke with him. He was arrested for disturbing the peace.

On Aug. 8, Edward Riley, arguing with other patrons, used profane language, Coleman said, and added that he and Sgt. Benassini arrested him after a struggle and charged him with intoxication.

Officer John Van Otten testified he arrested Gary Knouf on June 23 for possession of a chauffeur's license that was not his own and held him for the United States marshal for failure to possess a draft registration card.

Sgt. Benassini said that he arrested Walter Tighe when the man annoyed women customers then argued with police, and he was booked for intoxication.

On Mar. 20, he said, Robert E. Stone confessed he summoned police to the Hilltop Lodge with a report of a holdup. Police arriving found Stone, who said he saw men he thought intended a holdup. Stone, a soldier, was delivered to the Armed Services Police as a mental case.

Officer Philip La Bruzzo was questioned concerning a fight between Roy Padilla and Pete Keiser on July 17, but said it occurred at Vendome and Hillcrest and not in the lodge.

Jeffs Land Three All-PAL Grid Spots

Jefferson High School varsity was blanked in the ALL-PAL football first team selections made Thursday by Peninsula sportswriters, but managed to place one man on the second squad and two men on the ALL-Northern PAL, a new category set up by scribes last year.

Jim Honeywell, spearhead of the Jeff ground game this year, was named to the second string backfield of the All-league club.

Honeywell also earned a first string spot on the All-Northern PAL, as did jolting Tackle Harry Sampson. Sportswriters established the All-Northern and All-Southern divisions in order to give more representation on the mythical teams to the schools who fared less well in league competition.

Mateo Dominates

San Mateo dominated the first team of the regular All-PAL selections, placing Guard Oliver Semba, Center Gino Della Libera, and Backs Larry Kahler and Kent Ikeda.

Local gridders given honorable mention by the writers were: Rich Guisti, guard; and Mike Cloonan, end.

EAGLES TAKE OVER BRENTWOOD LEAD

A three-game sweep over Marketeers Tuesday gave Daly City Eagles a tidy two-game lead in the Daly City-Colma Bowling league at Brentwood.

With two weeks to go in the first half of the circuit, Central Club is runner-up, followed by Vince & Fred.

Babe De Luca of Vince & Fred rolled the evening's high series, 596. Watson of the Eagles was second high with a 584, followed by Paul's Flowers Paul De Lucchi's 564 trio. Andrew Van der Werff of DC-Colma Lions rolled a 558. De Lucchi hit his high game of the season, 166.

In the coincidence department, Ed Hafft of John's Brentwood Grill posted three games of 161 each.

Man Who Served Subpoena In Court Sentenced By Bocci

Although the subpoena served on him during court sessions last Thursday was considered invalid, Muni court Judge Thomas L. Bocci appeared in southern district municipal court Friday with all his records on hand.

In a sudden bit of action last Thursday that disrupted court decorum at South San Francisco, Bocci was served a subpoena while presiding over court.

The server, John E. Blake, 55, of San Francisco, was immediately tossed in the pokey and charged with contempt of court.

The process he attempted to serve ordered Bocci to bring with him Friday certain records in a civil case in which Bocci is the plaintiff, demanding back fees from a client he served in 1950.

The civil case was taken under submission Friday by Judge Edward J. Ryan of the southern district muni court.

Decision in the case will be reached in approximately 30 days, following further arguments by the defendant and arguments and rebuttal by Bocci.

Meanwhile, the over-eager process server appeared in Bocci's court Tuesday and was given the alternative of five days in jail or $100 fine. He was given a 10-day stay of sentence.

In imposing the sentence, Bocci "read the riot act" to Blake, pointing out that he wasn't attempting to serve a process on Thomas Bocci, citizen, but on Thomas Bocci, Judge.

A judge is immune from all service (subpoena) while sitting, Bocci said, and added that this was to protect the "sanctity and dignity" of the American courts.

TOTS EAT ASPIRIN; OK AFTER TREATMENT

Aspirins and kids don't mix—at least not when the youngsters take them in half-dozen lots.

Donan Lee Fisher, 4, and Danny Roy Fisher, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher, 501 Hillside boulevard, accidentally got hold of a bottle of aspirin Tuesday morning and started eating the pills.

Daly City police rushed the tots to Junipero Serra hospital, where they were declared out of danger after having their stomachs pumped.

MOLINA ADDS NOTCH TO FISTIC RECORD -- BATTERS SF'S ORAIS

By Frances Kavanaugh

A thoroughly thrashed fighter was given a rousing ovation in Daly City's War Memorial community center Thursday evening.

Bill Orais, amateur San Francisco lightweight, was no match for Luis Molina of Santa Clara after the second round, but he wouldn't say quit.

Molina, who defeated North American amateur lightweight champion L. C. Cage in Daly City in October, had Orais on the floor three times in the third and fourth rounds. The last of these had the four hundred and thirteen spectators holding their breath—Orais was limp on the plastic-covered floor and barely managed to rise to his feet before the timekeeper had tolled off 10 seconds. A second later, the bell ended the match.

There was no announcement of the decision, but Referee Fred Apostoli, former great middleweight champion, told Molina he had won unanimously.

Two Rounds Even

These amateurs, who had fought to a four-round draw four months ago and are the leading contenders for the lightweight title, battled evenly for most of the first two rounds of the main event sponsored by the Men's Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church.

Orais clobbered Lou with stiff right stomach blows and Molina had Bill's face scarlet with one-two combinations of left hooks and right crosses. Midway in the second round Orais sunk a left into Luis' abdomen and Apostoli stopped the bout temporarily. But Molina said the low blow hadn't hurt him and the match went on.

Late in the second round, the two 132-pounders stood toe to toe battering each other and the crowd roared, stamped, whistled and cheered. Then Luis connected with a murderous left to Orais' jaw that staggered him and left him dizzy.

Down For Eight

Molina floored Orais for an eight-count in the third round, knocked him through the rubber-covered ropes in the fourth and had him almost unconscious at the bell.

Through those last two rounds, Molina's handlers continuously called to him "move in, Luis, hit him, kayo him." The victor followed the instructions, but Orais wouldn't stay down. Occasionally, he surprised with a jolting right of his own.

Buck Shulda of Daly City knocked out Henry Callahan of Oakland in the third round of a semi-windup that resembled the Molina-Orais bout.

Shulde, at 160 pounds, crashed left hooks to Callahan's jaw almost at will, flooring him twice in the first round. Only heart kept Callahan in the ring in the second round, and he was counted out after a minute and 50 seconds of the third round because he didn't have strength left to rise.

Al Conley, 144 pounds, of Oakland, who showed himself to be a proficient boxer when he fought here in October, demonstrated last Thursday that he also packs iron in his fists. He knocked out Tony Moss in one minute and four seconds of the third round.

Fans Chuckle

Moss had the fans chuckling because of his stance. "Hey, you driving a Cadillac?" someone called from the audience. He held both gloves high and extended, but his style didn't seem to hamper him. He and Conley slugged one another continuously, but Al's blows were aimed more accurately and struck with more impact.

Roy Brown, 144 pounds, of Oakland, won a four-round decision over Louis Boltrano of Daly City. Brown wanted to wage a jabbing fight but Boltrano kept crowding in to slam Roy's body and the two frequently locked arms and stumbled off balance.

"No wrestling," Apoltoli told Boltrano several times.

"It's not me. It's this other guy," Louie answered.

Frank Anderson, 160 pounds, of Oakland, piled up points against George Shelton of San Francisco through a minute and a half of the first round, using jabs and feints to open up his opponent for effective right uppercuts. Then Shelton let go a haymaker and Anderson was still half unconscious when he got to his feet. Apostoli stopped the contest in the first round and Shelton won by TKO.

DC Lad KO'S Foe

Harry Benavente of Daly City, 168 pounds, floored Joe Lopeparo of San Francisco three times then kayo'ed him in the first round.

Lou Hagler of San Francisco, 147 pounds, scored a TKO over Herman Jones of SF in the first round of the first bout after decking him with a right smash to the jaw that left Jones dreamy.

The last three bouts on the OLPH card were thrill-packed and brought such applause from the fans that the walls shook and the floor rattled.

Apostoli, who was one of the greats among professionals two decades ago, watched the amateurs carefully and stopped two of the first four contests to keep the losers from being hurt when all chance of winning was gone.

The third of the series of matches will be presented January 13.

Before the contests began, Michael Maffei sang, "Star-Spangled Banner."

DON'T DANGLE ARM

Don't dangle your arm out the window while driving, advises the National Automobile Club. Such false arm signals only cause confusion on the highway, and usually ends in collision.

Capacity Turnout Views Aqua Circus At Jefferson Pool

A capacity crowd of more than 400 jammed the bleachers of the pool at Jefferson High school in Daly City Monday night to see the Red Cross "Water Circus" put on by the San Mateo county chapter in cooperation with the high school's recreation department.

Ten precision swimming acts with from one to twelve performers, most of them loaned for the occasion by the school, rated vigorous rounds of applause from the audience. Of special interest to the crowd were three Red Cross demonstrations of beginning swimming, put on by four little San Carlos girls directed by Bob Lightcap. Two South San Francisco high girls demonstrated intermediate swimming, directed by Earl Herman. Mel Whiteside of San Mateo showed various life saving techniques using two San Mateo young men for his demonstration.

The show was opened by Chester Banachowski, water safety chairman for the local Red Cross. He emphasized the importance of this public service offered by the Red Cross and high school districts in the chapter area and pointed out that the program has grown from about 2000 in 1850 to over 15,000 this past year. Paul Guargalia, a student at Jefferson, acted as ringmaster.

Ninety school trustees, members of the Red Cross board, their husbands and wives and several guests, enjoyed dinner together preceding the aquacade. All of the food was a gift from the George Anast family of Burlingame, presented as a "thank you" to Red Cross volunteers. It was prepared and served in the high school cafeteria by the Red Cross canteen directed by Mrs. George Kelly of Millbrae, canteen chairman.

STATION WAGONS

Station wagons accounted for about five per cent of total automotive factory sales in the United States in 1953, reports the National Automotive Club.

Jeff Cagers Split With Two SF Clubs

Jefferson High school's varsity and lightweight cagers made their season debut this past week with a .500 average in practice games.

Friday the unlimiteds dazzled the crowd at the local gym with smooth play-making, topping a good Galileo club, 58-56.

Close throughgout, the contest was deadlocked at 25 all at the end of the first half.

Coach Mike Orlich experimented liberally with his line-up, and might have been able to defeat Galileo by a bigger margin had he stuck with his starters.

Lagomarsino Hits 20

Al Lagomarsino, up from last year's 30s, drove in hard at the basket all afternoon and pounded through 20 points. Most of his tallies were a direct result of precision plays executed by his teammates.

Al Knier and Al Figone picked up eight points to rank second high for the day, while other scorers were Bill Storch, 5, Wesley Yates, 5, Darrell Hutchinson, 2, Jim Honeywell, 2, Babe Anguillo, 6, and Ray Vuillmainroy, 2.

The 30s were tripped up by the San Francisco five, losing 44-22. Bill Curtis paced local efforts with 15 markers, while Larry Kennedy was close behind with 13. Larry Pottinger tanked 10 while Han Edwards netted 4 to roun out scoring.

The game see-sawed, with Jeff at one time holding a slight edge.

30s Top Mission

In Monday's double bill against Mission, the 30s gained their first win, 33-32, while their big brothers were routed, 51-38.

Against a supposedly weaker team than Galileo, the local varsity appeared sluggish, unable to develop any of the plays that proved so successful a few days earlier.

The varisty started off briskly, taking command, 10-6 at the close of the first quarter. At half-time Mission gained a five-point advantage, 25-20, and from there on out continued to increase the margin.

Anguillo topped scoring with 10, while Lagomarsino followed with 8, Hutchinson, 7, Storch, Knier, 3, Figone, 2, and Ray Schultz, 2.

Gonzalez Wins It

A two-pointer by Rich Gonzalez in the closing seconds gave the little Indians their win. It was Gonzales only field goal of the day.

Kennedy and Curtis led scoring with 11, each followed by Edwards, 6, Gonzalez, 3, and Pottinger, 2.

Today (Friday) the Jeff varsity treks to Hayward for an invitational tourney. They will meet Bishop O'Dowd school in the first round at 3:40, and play again tonight at 8:30 if victorious.

Next week finds the two clubs journeying to Tamalpais Tuesday and Sonora Friday.

Lions Host For Traffic Boys Trek To 49er Grid Contest

One hundred Daly City traffic boys will be in for a big treat tomorrow (Saturday) when they are guests of the Daly City-Colma Lions club at the San Francisco 49er-Baltimore Colt football game.

The outing will begin at 12 noon tomorrow when the youngsters will gather in front of the Jefferson High school. Twenty Lions will accompany the traffic patrol to the Kezar stadium contest, final of the year for the 49ers.

Two chartered buses will take the youngsters to and from the game.

During the afternoon, Lions will treat the traffic boys to refreshments.

JEFF 'PAPOOSE' CAGERS LAND 3 ALL-PAL POSTS

Coach Mike Orlich's all-victorious Jefferson High 10s and 20s basketball teams landed three first string positions on the All-PAL squads announced this week.

High scoring Center Len Hinterman won his first-string spot on the All-PAL 20s five by unanimous vote.

Selected to first string on the 10s club were Andy Ruelas and Dick Firth.

Ruelas and Firth were kingpins in the Jeff 10s squad that went through the season undefeated in north division play and climaxed their efforts by beating Willow Glen for the overall league title.

Hinterman was the hub of the Jeff 20 club that won all their northern division games and were beaten out in the playoffs by Willow Gen, south division champs.

Narrowly missing honor of selection to the first string 20s club was Jeffs' George Rocchi, who was named to the second team.

Jefferson dominated the 10s mythical second team, placing Gary Ryan and Al Dye.

Indian hoopster gaining honorable mention was Waldy King of the 20s team.

The exciting new idea behind the motoramic Chevrolet

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Maybe once in a car-buying lifetime, you come across something that breaks all the old patterns and establishes new ones. This is that kind of car. This is the true story of how Chevrolet and General Motors shaped a new idea in steel.

Like most good ideas, this one is pretty simple. Chevrolet and General Motors set out to build the first low-priced car that would:

- bring you the very freshest and finest styling to be had.
- bring you the most advanced engine design and engineering features.
- bring you the kind of performance and the kind of ride that have never been available before in a low-priced car.
- bring you the highest quality of manufacture and materials.

All this in Chevrolet's price field? That did take some doing! And isn't it logical that only Chevrolet and General Motors have the people, skills, resources and facilities, to carry out this exciting new idea? Here is how this new Chevrolet changes all your ideas about cars!

Real Show-Car Styling!

Your eye tells you the Motoramic Chevrolet is no styling "patch-up" job. A rakish, low profile . . . soft swiftness from its sleek rear fenders to its wide-eyed Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a new outlook for motoring. And that outlook doesn't change when you slip inside . . . exciting fabrics and trim are harmonized with the whole car.
